

sentative Seymour Stedman; Wm. A. Costello, general organizer Western Federation of Miners.

(Pulman), 11037 Michigan avenue; Thursday, Jan. 1 (New Year's), 2:30 p. m. Speakers—John H. Walker, president Illinois Federation of Labor; Representative Seymour Stedman; Wm. A. Cunnea, attorney for Pressmen and Machinists' Union; Chas. L. Breckon, Thos. P. Costello; Yanco Terzich, general organizer Western Federation of Miners.

Walsh's Hall, Emma and Milwaukee avenue; Friday, Jan. 2, 8 p. m. Speakers—Yanco Terzich, general organizer Western Federation of Miners; Dr. S. A. Koppnagel, W. E. Rodriguez and Polish speakers.

Auditorium Hall, Blue Island avenue and 18th street; Sunday, Jan. 4, 2:30 p. m. Speakers—Chas. H. Tanner, traveling auditor Western Federation of Miners; Yanco Terzich, Wm. A. Cunnea, J. C. Kennedy and W. E. Rodriguez.

By mere waste, caused by coins rubbing one against another, the civilized world, it is said, loses $1\frac{1}{4}$ tons of gold and 88 tons of silver annually.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY—BY CONDO

TWO MILLION YEARS AGO TONIGHT
MRS. SHALE-SLAB SAID

